

Introducing the Rural Skills Hub: Virtual Event

Thursday 20th January 2022

11am-3pm

The Rural Skills Hub is a new service offering advice, support and funding for people who want to start a career in dry stone walling or hedgelaying.

Join us @RuralSkillsHub on Facebook and Twitter to find out more about the Hub, our partners (the Dry Stone Walling Association and the National Hedgelaying Society) plus the benefits of starting a career involving traditional rural skills.

Supported by:

Green Recovery Challenge Fund

Event timetable:

Thursday 20th January 2022

Time	Topic	Summary
11am-12pm	Rural Careers	Thinking about starting a rural career? We show you the benefits of starting a career in boundary maintenance, and introduce you to some organisations who can help you get started.
12pm-1:30pm	Introducing the Rural Skills Hub	Find out more about our training grants, placements, experience days and other services.
1:30pm-2:30pm	Benefits of Traditional Boundaries	Dry stone walls and hedgerows are more than stockproof barriers. Learn about the benefits to ecology and the community of keeping boundaries in good repair.
2:30pm-3pm	Q&A	The Rural Skills Hub Co-ordinator will be on hand to answer any questions you have about the Hub.

Supported by: Green Recovery Challenge Fund

